The parties shall respond to the invitation to mediate within 15 days of being invited to mediate. Mediation shall be conducted in accordance with procedures and within the time limits adopted by the Commission.

(ii) If mediation is elected by the parties, the parties may jointly select a mediator, in which case they shall be jointly responsible for all financial costs and expenses associated with mediation and may allocate the costs of mediation as they agree. (b) If the mediation has not successfully resolved the complaint, and if the complaint alleges a violation of this Ordinance which is also proscribed under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, the Commission shall notify the parties that the complaint has been dismissed, and refer the complaint to the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission for further proceedings provided that the Complaint has been filed with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission.

B. If the mediation has not successfully resolved the complaint or if a party has not participated in mediation, and only if the complaint alleges a violation of this Chapter which is not otherwise proscribed under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act and over which the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission does not have jurisdiction, the Commission shall proceed as follows:

(i) Investigation. The Commission shall, in a timely fashion, investigate the allegations of an Unlawful Practice set forth in the complaint by designating an investigator, who may be a member of the Commission. The Commission may, in the conduct of such investigation and upon review, issue subpoenas to any person charged with an Unlawful Practice, or any person believed by the Commission to have information relevant to the complaint, commanding such person to furnish information, records or other documents, as necessary to assist in the Commission's investigation.

(ii) Finding of No Cause. If it shall be determined after the Commission's investigation that there is no probable cause for the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall cause to be issued and served upon the parties written notice of such determination and dismissal of the complaint. This notice shall inform the person aggrieved that he/she has the right to pursue the matter in court.

(iii) Conciliation. If the Commission, after investigation, determines that probable cause exists for the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall immediately endeavor to eliminate the Unlawful Practice complained of by persuasion, conference and conciliation. If it determines that conciliation may be a useful approach, the Commission shall designate one of its members as a conciliator, who shall undertake conciliation following approved procedures of the Commission.

(iv) Public Hearing.

(a) If the Commission finds it is not possible to eliminate the Unlawful Practice by persuasion, conference and conciliation, the Commission, shall cause to be issued and served a written notice scheduling a public hearing before the Commission at a time and place to be specified in such notice.

(b) The Commission may designate one or more of its members to preside at such public hearing. Except as set forth below in this Subsection (b), all Commission members shall be invited to sit on and hear such public hearing, and no public hearing shall be held unless a quorum of the Commission hears all of the evidence. A quorum of the Commission shall consist of no fewer than five (5) members unless otherwise agreed to by Complainant and Respondent. Any Commission member who acted as a mediator, investigator or conciliator shall not participate in such public hearing except as a witness to present the results of the investigation. Any Commission member with a conflict of interest shall not participate in such public hearing except as a witness.

(c) At the public hearing, both the Complainant and the Respondent shall be given the opportunity to appear, with or without counsel, to provide sworn testimony and submit evidence. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but irrelevant or unduly repetitious evidence may be excluded by the Commission in its discretion. In addition, both the Complainant and the Respondent may introduce the testimony of additional witnesses and may submit documentary evidence. All witnesses are subject to cross-examination by the parties to the hearing.

(d) A court reporter shall make a formal record of the proceedings. The cost of transcription shall be equally split between the Respondent and the Complainant. The Commission may award to a prevailing party the cost of transcription as a reasonable out-of-pocket expense in accordance with Section XIII hereof and Section 9(f)(1) of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act cited therein.

(e) The Commission shall keep records, in the custody of the Township Manager, of its prior decisions and, together with judicial decisions decided under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, shall use and rely upon such decisions for their precedential value.

(f) The Chairperson of the Commission, and in his or her absence, the Vice-Chairperson, shall have the authority to issue subpoenas, rule on evidence and regulate the course of the hearing.

(g) The transcript of testimony and exhibits together with the complaint and any written response shall constitute the exclusive record for decision. Ex parte contacts with the members of the Commission, except those members of the Commission participating in mediation, conciliation or investigation, are prohibited.

(v) Findings and Award. If upon all the evidence at the hearing the Commission shall find by a vote of a simple majority of the members at the hearing that a Respondent has engaged in or is engaging in any Unlawful Practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on such Respondent a written decision and order requiring such Respondent to cease and desist from such Unlawful Practice and to take such affirmative action, including, but not limited to: hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees (with or without back pay), admission or restoration to membership in any respondent labor organization, the making of reasonable accommodations, and/or selling or leasing specified housing accommodations or publicly-offered commercial property upon such equal terms and conditions as was available to other persons at the time of the Unlawful Practice.

(vi) Finding of No Discrimination. If upon all the evidence the Commission by such majority shall find that a Respondent has not engaged in any Unlawful Practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact and shall issue and cause to be served on the parties a written decision and order dismissing the complaint as to such Respondent.
(vii) Appeal. Any final order of the Commission may be appealed to the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County within sixty (60) days of the date of issuance of that order as provided by law for a de novo hearing.

(viii) Enforcement. When the Commission has heard and decided any complaint brought before it, and the non-prevailing party has failed to comply with or appeal such final order within the sixty (60) days in Subsection vii above, enforcement of the order may be initiated by the prevailing party by the filing of a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, together with a transcript of the record of the hearing before the Commission, and issuance and service of a copy of said petition as in proceedings in equity.
